

Sudeep J. Menachery, MD

HEMATOLOGY & ONCOLOGY SPECIALIST

ABOUT DR. MENACHERY

Dr. Menachery joined HOAF in 2006, and throughout that time he has greeted each patient with his exceptional knowledge and compassion. Board certified in medical oncology, hematology, and internal medicine, he gains inspiration from his patients, "I am always amazed at the strength and courage that patients with cancer have in their everyday fight. They inspire me in my profession as we continue to search for cures."

Dr. Menachery treats cancer with advanced, evidence-based therapies, and is always in tune with the latest advances in treatment. He has written on various topics and has been published in such respected publications as the American Journal of Hypertension and the American Journal of Kidney Disease. In addition, he is affiliated with many respected organizations, including the American Society of Hematology, the American Society of Clinical Oncology, the Society for Advancement of Blood Medicine, and the Fredericksburg Medical Society.

Dr. Menachery earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from St. George's University School of Medicine and completed his fellowship in hematology and oncology at Hahnemann University Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Menachery is married and has two daughters. Outside of work, he enjoys golf, traveling, and tennis, and he hopes to one day attend all four tennis grand slam tournaments. A running enthusiast, he enjoys participating in the annual Fredericksburg half marathon. Having grown up in the South, he is happy to be living and practicing in Fredericksburg.

WHAT PATIENTS SAY ABOUT DR. MENACHERY

Dr. Menachery was my sister's doctor. He takes all the time with his patients they need. Never once did he cut her short. If I ever need an oncology doctor, I will go with him, and I have referred several people to Dr. Menachery.
